

Screwed Again

Broken hearted. Can it be true?
Down the drain, so much pain.
I'm singin' me the blues.
When it started, it was shiny new.
Love was claimed – I entertained that you would share my view.

(Refrain)

But I was wrong. Wrong all along.
I'm a fool to pretend.
Never should've gone on this long...
Now I'm screwed again.

Outsmarted. I can't believe it.
Found a place to hang my hat.
Now I gotta leave it.
Disregarded, What can you do?
Everything was goin' fine –
Nothin' that I knew...

(refrain)

It's not okay to cheat and stray.
Don't want this show to end.
Throw away my big bouquet –
She only wants to be my friend...

(refrain)

I'm a target. I need lovin' too.
A mark who's not too smart –
Scorin' far too few.
Now we're parted. I'm on the mend.
Shouldn't spend the sorrow
when I'm screwed again.

(refrain)

Leap of Faith

Come a little closer to me.
They call it a leap of faith.
There is no guarantee.
Not a fall from grace.
Eyes closed, go forward
there's no net below.
If you slip, I'll br there no time to take it slow.

(Refrain)

Take a leap of faith. (leap of faith)
Take a leap of faith. (leap of faith)
Coulda, shoulda, woulda – have got to be erased.
Take a leap of faith. (leap of faith)
Take a leap of faith. (leap of faith)
Can't get here without it.
Something you must embrace.

If you're afraid, be brave.
Fear won't let you near.
Not the loss, but what you save makes sunlight reappear.

A leap of faith is never safe.
It's a way to change.
A leap of faith – a brand new place
that feels so wild and strange.

(refrain)

You've got to make the leap yourself – journey to the stars.
You alone and no one else
goes through it with your heart.
Time step forward
and leave part of you behind.
Pick up what you ordered with your soul and with your mind.

(refrain)

Come a little closer to me.
They call it a leap of faith.
There is no guarantee.
Not a fall from grace.
A leap of faith is never safe.
It's a way to change.
A leap of faith – a brand new place
that feels so wild and strange.
Take a leap of faith.

The Sky's the Limit

Life's adventure – a trial at times.
When it hands you lemons
and all you've got is limes.
Life's experience – with each one we grow
no matter good or bad
it's every seed we sow.

(Refrain)

The sky's the limit. I want to win it.
You never know the dice you'll throw.
The sky's the limit. I want to win it.
You never know how far you can go.

Life's a journey – a path truly yours.
No cost to getting lost,
your passage is assured.
Life's a gamble – a giant game of chance.
A toss of coin, a lucky hand,
a shot at true romance.

(refrain)

Life's a mirror
within your reflection.
It matters how you see yourself and go the right direction.
Life's a song –
you've got to sing it.
It doesn't have to be in tune,
it's your bell, so ring it.

(refrain)

Life's a dream – but not a delusion.
Have your castles in the air,
without chaos and confusion.
Life's a privilege –
nothing there to squander.
What you do and what you say directs the path you wander.

(refrain)

Nevermore

Raven lives inside of me,
wants to fly away.
Flee – it seeks escape.
Free – it cannot stay.
Shall I listen to the Raven?
I cannot say.

Raven knows you love me,
but has it flown away?
Can't put you above me,
my heart is gonna pay.
Here the call of Raven?
Fly away.

(Refrain)

A memory I never had opens up the door.
I became your Galahad,
you were my Lenore.
Nevermore.

(Refrain 2)

Raven, can you hear me?
I know I hear your call.
Why do you keep finding me when you're not here at all?

(refrain)

Raven fights for his own cause.
Maybe not my own.
Freedom gained, but what is lost when all is left is bones?
Wish away the Raven?
Fly away home.

(refrain2)

Nevermore.

Party Lines, Party Lies

Come and join our party.
Get in the party line.
Can't win without you.
The one to get behind.
Come and join our party.
It's the place to be.
Better than the others.
From sea to shining sea.

(Refrain)

Politics as usual.
Everything is crucial.
Won't except refusal.
Want your approval.

Come and join our party.
Be it red or blue.
Campaign for the party line.
Our version of the truth.
Come and join our party.
It's presidential time.
Leader of the free world.
Cast your vote in kind.

Do we reap from what we sow with choices never clear?
Are you a friend or are you foe?
Where do we go from here?
What if we erase the lines that divide us all?
It's time our votes align and put the parties in the dark.

(refrain)

Let's not join the party.
Let's not play this game.
The one percent still gets the rent
while we go down the drain.
Let's not join the party.
Let's decide to disagree.
There's gotta be a better way
to choose how to be free.

Gotta be a better way
to choose how to be free.
Gotta be a better way
to choose how to be free.

Mr. Inappropriate

Genuine embarrassment, doesn't even try.
A jerk at wreckin' everything
A clown in disguise
On a cell in front of you fighting with his wife.
T-M-I – just say goodbye –
don't care about his life.

(Refrain)

Mr. Inappropriate –
One in every crowd
He's Mr. Inappropriate – Head in the clouds.
Mr. Inappropriate –
Can you leave us now?

Dirty joke for all to hear,
words that aren't so kind.

Little children in the crowd
Disturb their little minds.
Spills his drink – no regret – leaves his junk behind.
Doesn't clean up anything–
a pig is more refined!

(refrain)

(Refrain2)

You appear everywhere,
leave us all alone.
You're not welcome anywhere,
can't you stay at home?
No one's gonna miss you
it's time to say goodbye.
Wish you would disappear,
there's times you make us cry...

Opinions 'bout politics,
first one to pick a fight.
Knows how things ought to be –
of course he's always right!
Always says life ain't fair,
cuts to first in line.
Shoves to get a better spot –
Stick it where the sun don't shine!

(refrain)

(refrain2)

(refrain)

Ricochet

Just one of those days thinkin' 'bout you.
So many dreams that never came true.
Makes me wonder if I ever had a clue...
Just one time I wish I were a cloud, float over your way and end the doubt.
Rain on your parade and watch you pout.
You know I'd be there laughing out loud.

Can't say I miss you 'cause maybe I don't.
Can't kiss a prince when he's really a toad.
Maybe all I did was take the wrong road.
Now it's time for me to find a new way.
Chip out of stone, not molded in clay.
Keep the good, throw out all the decay.
Don't shoot for love when it ricochets.

(Refrain)

Don't shoot for love when it ricochets.
Don't shoot for love when it ricochets.
All the emotions get in the way –
Don't shoot for love when it ricochets.

You might say I've done my time.
Served my days in this jail of mine – searchin' for something I can't find...
But maybe what I'm lookin' for is nothin' that I should explore – Somethin' that will even the score a happy heart restored before.

Thinkin' bout shootin' blanks in my gun.
No reason to run, won't hurt anyone –
No wounds that can't be undone.
May not work, it's hard to say.
Your're out of my head now anyway.
Learned my lesson the old hard way
Don't shoot for love when it ricochets.

(refrain)

Two Heads, One Heart

When I see a girl I like my life is not the same.
It's all I can think about 'til I know her name.
She's in my mind so I must fan that lovin' flame.
She must be mine, I'm quite inclined to get what I attain.

Hello honey, smile at me, so I can smile at you.
You're a treat that can't be beat,
somehow I think you knew.
Just a word, just a laugh, a simple "how ya do".
I know you're the one for me,
so please don't say adieu.

(Refrain)

Just get one chance to make that first impression spark.
We may have two heads
but I know we share one heart.

I'm a mess, can't get my rest until I catch a train.
Got to get on the right track and see you smile again.
Don't know where we're going, it's just a little insane.
If you like me like I like you let's toast it with champagne.

(refrain)

(refrain)

Everyone has a beginning. Ours is set to start.
When two people fall in love, it's often in a lark.
Turn on the light please, don't keep me in the dark.
I know we're the perfect pair – two heads with just one heart.

(refrain)

When I see a girl I like my life is not the same.
It's all I can think about 'til I know her name.
She's in my mind so I must fan that lovin' flame.
She must be mine, I'm quite inclined to get
what I attain.

(refrain)

Winter's on My Mind

Without you, it's darkness
with you I'm in the light.
Whenever we're together, babe,
you know it'll be alright.

Gettin' cold outside but you're still on my mind.
Summer's gone, it seems so long –
it must be winter time.

(Refrain)

Sunshine, you know it'll be just fine –
But sometimes winter's on my mind.

Maybe it's the season.
Feelin' so left behind.
Maybe it's the weather, babe,
or a couple things combined.

Summer seemed so easy,
our love was so sublime.
Hear there's frost a comin'
it must be winter time.

(refrain)

(Refrain2)

Fall turns to darkness
Summer turns to light.
Love turns to you dear
Makes me feel so right.
Days gettin' shorter
more hours in the night.
Things sort of foggy
cloudin' up my sight.
Without you it's darkness,
with you it's light.
Let's stay together
uou know it feels so right.
Sometimes the winter
gets stuck in my mind.
Sunshine you know
it'll be just fine.

Days gettin' shorter now,
more hours in the night.
Thing got sorta foggy, dear,
cloudin' up my sight.

Without you, it's darkness
with you I'm in the light.
Let's always be together, babe,
I know it'll be alright.

(refrain)

(refrain)

(refrain2)

Second Chance

I am not a perfect person,
there ain't no halo here.
I walk the straight and narrow,
but curveballs makes me veer.

(Refrain)

I don't intend to mess it up
it just happens in a glance.
It only takes a second to need a second chance.

There are times I'm not myself and say things out of line.
There are times when I said yes
when I really should decline.

(refrain)

(refrain)

I will say that I am sorry,
I will say I'm wrong.
I can't erase my own mishap and make it right all along.

(refrain)

Might have been a dumb mistake or crazy circumstance.
Let's begin again to make it mend,
then rewind the dance.

(refrain)

(refrain)

Dreamacres

The rooster crows, the sun is up,
time to face the light.
Fryin' bacon and a couple eggs start the day just right.
Breakfast's done, day's just begun, make it what it's all become.
Dreamacres is the place to be,
it's just right for me.

I wish I could sleep all day,
but that's not in the plan.
Go out and cut some hay –
part of livin' off the land.
Might not be for everyone,
workin' 'till the day is done.
Dreamacres is the place to be,
it's just right for me.

Gotta plow, a horse and cow,
a place to hang my hat –
a gal who loves me anyhow,
a dog that sings and scats.
Find a stream, take a plunge,
get dried off in the summer sun.
Dreamacres is the place to be

and it's just right for me.

There's a bar that ain't that far and they know me by my name.
Got pickled eggs in the jar,
beer that's made from grain.
Drank a few with guys I knew,
tellin' lies that might be true.
Dreamacres is the place to be,
it's just right for me.

(break - whistling)

Goin' home, the day is done,
'nother one has come and gone.
Chickens'll roost 'till the morning sun,
close the gate, shut the barn.
Rest my head, know it's mine,
shut my eyes and dream sublime.
Dreamacres is the place to be,
it's just right for me.
It's just right for me.
It's just right for me.

Earworms

Got a little tune rattlin' round my head.
Don't know the words
so make 'em up instead.
Just a catchy number goin' through my brain,
over and over repeatin' the refrain.

(Refrain)

Earworms. (Earworms)
It should be a crime.
Earworms. (Earworms)
It's how they're designed.
Earworms. (Earworms)
My brain's in a bind.
Earworms. (Earworms)
Losing my mind!

3am, wide awake, Crawl in my ear.
Mantra of melody, it's all that I can hear.
It takes full control, wires that are crossed.
Gotta get some sleep. Love to shut it off.

(refrain)

It worms its way in that special place you hear music in your mind.
Can't shake it off – no escape,
thoughts are undermined.

Just a little earworm squirm in my head.
Leave me alone so I can go to bed.
Time for some quiet. No more song abuse.
No noisy riot messin' with my snooze.

(refrain)

It's so wrong, got to get it gone,
from takin' over my brain.
Your riffs goin' on and on – driving me insane...!

(refrain)

I Want to Know You

I want to know you
the words you speak to me must be true.
I want to show you
the things you do that matter to you.

What will be
is only what will be reality.
What will be
is only what our dreamland seems to be.

I want to know you
the words you speak to me must be true.
I want to show you
the things you do that matter to you.

What will be (tonight just seems so far away, really hope you can stay)
is only what will be reality.
What will be (all the times within my life, never knew it would be so nice)
is only what our dreamland seems to be.

I want to know you
the love you bring to me must be true.
I want to show you
together as one is better than two.

What will be (I dream of us as one, there's nothing that can't be done)
is only what will be reality.
What will be (It feels like you're a part of me, something we both can see)
is only what our dreamland seems to be.

I want to know you
my heart is yours to have if you choose.
I want to show you
how we can be a flower that blooms.

What will be (I'll be there everywhere, everything we will share)
is only what will be reality.
What will be (You'll be my unity, the part of me that I can't see)
is only what our dreamland seems to be.

I want to know you
a kiss from your soft lips must be true
I want to show you
you knew that I'm the one for you.

Summertime

(Refrain)
Having fun in the summertime
I got your back you got your money
Fall in love this summertime
You call your bitch, you call her Honey.
You're the one don't get left behind.
Think I'll walk, the skies are sunny.
Having fun in the summertime.
You ride the bus, I think that's funny.

(Refrain2)
Fun, it's summertime summertime
We'll have so much
Fun it's summertime summertime
The fun just begun.

I feel so fine, sit back recline.
This ain't no time to do no crime.
Some bar-b-q tasty honeydew,
throw it back with a few cold brews.
Out with my shoes to do flip flops.
Singin' to tunes to my girl's hip hop.
Dance and shake, just don't stop.
I got to keep movin' till I drop!

(refrain1)
(refrain2)

Go to the beach there's sand in my toes.
The warm summer sun gets rid of my woes.
Out in the bay there's wind for the sailin',
but I like the land, cause I'm no Magellan.
I like the sand that builds me a castle.
Kick in my face, it's a great big hassle.
Stay out of jail. No rays in lock up.
Time not to burn, sun block up.

(refrain1)

At the park you make your mark.
There's no time frown flip upside down.
I swear what you wear makes me stare,
I hear you laugh without a care.
Groove and sun, it's almost done,
it's summertime you just can't run.

(refrain2)

A summer martini, I'm feeling dreamy,
I'm ready for wishes from a princess genie.
Find me a stick and roast me some weenies.
Gawk at the bitches in the teeny bikinis.
Take the top down, blow through your hair cruise uptown, to the fun fun fair.
Marshmallow chocolate, give me s'more,
me and my gent got no remorse.

(refrain1)

Tonight

You are here. Holding me dear.
Closer than near.
I know I love you – just you – tonight.
Time to hold us tight.
Here I am. Holding your hand.
You understand.
You know I love you – just you – tonight.
It's time for us tonight.
When two souls fall in love
it's a blessing from above.
You're here with me tonight.

Can it be, you and me finding the key to something more than the moon and stars tonight?
You are the one for all my life.
When two souls fall in love
it's a blessing from above
You're here with me tonight.

We are both right here, right now
it's hard to understand – Maybe it's a miracle, maybe there's a plan
tonight.
You are here. Holding me dear.
Closer than near.
I know I love you – just you – tonight.
Time to hold us tight.

When two souls fall in love
it's a blessing from above.
You are here. So near. Tonight.
When two souls fall in love
it's a blessing from above.
We're here. My dear.. Tonight.

Crank It Out

(Crank it out. Crank it out.)
Gotta get a tune down in my head.
Wrote a few notes before it fled.
Gotta good beginning, don't have an end –
not the kinda time that I wanna spend.
When nothin's right, then it must be all wrong,
just need a song I can sing along.

(Refrain)
(Crank it out.)
Gotta be a Twist n Shout –
(Crank it out.)
Break it, shake it, make it loud!
(Crank it out.)
As long as it pleases the crowd –
(Crank it out.)

Make up a melody, create a chord,
Gotta find the sound that I wanna record.
Put a song together, yeah that's the plan,
a little harmony for the brothers in the band.
Blend the beat then lay down the tracks,
gotta get it done so I can relax –
(refrain)
(refrain)

Didn't get enough sleep last night.
When the moon went to bed, I was still uptight.
Maybe I'm just tryin' too hard,
Playing solitaire, yeah missing a card.
Where is my muse, man? Must ruminate!
Gotta make music, the call can't wait.

(refrain)
(refrain)

Together

Do you remember me?
I hoped we would always be together.
If you remember me,
then maybe we will be together.

(Refrain)
Seems like a long time ago.
A dream we had a long time ago, together.
Though it was a long time ago,
such a long long time ago, together.

We were once so young and free, always thought there'd be time to be,
together.
Time can play tricks you see,
the way all of our memories are measured.

(refrain)
(refrain)

I said what will be will be.
Never thought it would ever be, never.
You said you belonged to me.
It's a scene I could always see, forever.

I Still Like You

I don't like your music,
I think it's really crap.
I don't like your friends,
so just get off my back.
But I still like you honey,
so won't you like me back?

I don't like your car, it's a swell death trap.
I don't like the food you eat,
it makes me really fat.
But I still like you honey,
so won't you like me back?

I still like the way you dress,
less is more to see.
I still like the way you talk,
when you talk about me.
I still like the way you smell,
reminds me of myself.
I still like you honey –

(Refrain)
I still like you.
I still like you.

I still like you.
I still like you.

So do you want to go out or what?

(refrain)

Like you like you honey,
so won't you like me back?

I still like the way you dress,
less is more to see.
I still like the way you talk,
when you talk about me.
I still like the way you smell,
reminds me of myself.
I still like you honey –

(refrain)

Like you like you honey,
so won't you like me back?

I don't like your voice,
it's really out of whack.
I don't like your attitude,
you're a spoiled brat.
But I still like you honey,
so won't you like me back?

I don't like your house,
it's a 4 wheeled shack.
I don't like your company,
when all you do is yak.
But I still like you honey,
so won't you like me back?

(refrain)

Is this a joke?
