

Life Goes On

I awoke and you weren't there
I wondered where you might be without me –
I'm alone, it's plain to see.
Perhaps it's just my point of view,
but argue when we just should disagree?
Seems so strange to me.

(refrain)
Life goes on.
Every darkness has a dawn.
Life goes on.
Want us to sing our song.

Times you say I don't care.
Really might be unaware,
just can't see –
sometimes it's not all me.
Always a perfect pair,
even playing solitaire
That's the key – to sailing our stormy seas.

(refrain)

(mid8)
Lovers can hit some bumps,
and have their ups and downs.
Why throw it all away
when our ship goes aground?
Not broken, but open –
New ways for us to be.
Something that'll pass my love.
won't break us now, you'll see...

(refrain) – changing life to love in the last refrain

I awoke and you weren't there
I wondered where you might be without me –

When Loving Right is Wrong

I introduce your love in the dark.

I light the fuse –
it ignites with a spark.

(refrain)
Well it's OK,
we'll make it anyway.
Gotta be where we belong.
Yeah, it's OK,
black and white is gray
when lovin' right is wrong.

I will seduce
your fears from the start.

I know the truth
when it stays in my heart.

(refrain)
(mid8)
What do they know about love?
Unjust to make such fuss.
Can't stop us – can't get enough.
What do they know about love?
What do they know?
What do they know?
What do they know?

Love always shows that it stays never goes.

Love is a dose that most folks need the most.

(refrain)
(refrain)

If I Can't Laugh

There's nothin' really to shout about, nothin' that made my day.
Nothin' I can't do without, yeah nothin' that came my way.
Heartbreak keeps followin' me and I keep wonderin' why...
These times I know if I can't laugh –
I will cry.

(refrain)
If I can't laugh, then I'll cry.
If I don't laugh, I will surely die.
Just a step from misery –
Crack a joke, poke some fun at me...

There's somethin' behind my smilin' face,
There's somethin' inside my laugh.
Somethin' sad I can't erase,
somethin' that hides my wrath.
Can't be happy all the time but I can always try –
These times I know if I don't laugh –
I will surely cry.

(refrain)

(mid 8)
The world keeps turnin' –
it's hard to understand.
Hunger keeps on churnin' – innocence needs a hand.

Way too many angels
gunned to the ground.
What's it gonna take to turn it all around?

(refrain)

If I can't laugh.
If I can't laugh.
If I can't laugh.
If I can't laugh.

Turn Me On

Turn me on, my circuit breaker,
blow my fuse, can't regulate her.
Flip my switch, my neon witch,
program me without a glitch.

(refrain)
My trans sister
Can't resist her
If it's a phase, I'd be amazed.

Transform her into something new Rivet her hard, tighten the screw.
Induct her to my hall of fame,
Conduct her pleasure, prevent her pain.

(refrain)

(mid 8)
Rectify her technology.
Amplify without apology.
Integrate her transfer rate.
Radar love on our first date.
Tune her in my frequency.
Process her with my potency.
If it's a phase I'd be amazed.

Curves are torqued, voltage's hot,
my D.C.P. is all I got.
Falling for her magnetic field,
her constant magnitude is revealed.

(refrain)
(refrain)

Turn me on, my circuit breaker,
blow my fuse, can't regulate her.
Flip my switch, my neon witch,
program me without a glitch.

(refrain)

If it's a phase, I'd be amazed. (x9)

Next Best Thing

I need love that won't run away.
Persuade my lonely heart to stay.

(refrain) Well, I'm looking for the next best thing tonight –
One that won't make me crazy again.
Gotta get me over my plight –
Looking for more than a friend.

More than a friend.
More than a friend.

Then she comes and walks my way.
Talks the talk and plays the play.

(refrain)

(mid 8)
I'm searching for a special woman.
One who won't let me down.
Stabbed too many times,
back on the rebound...
Rebound...

Don't want tonight to go astray.
Need something that makes me stay.

(refrain)

(mid 8)

(refrain)

(mid8-2)
Looking for the next best thing.
I think it might be tonight.
If I find her I will know if her bark's worse than her bite.

(refrain)
(refrain)
(refrain)

Rub Her Soul

She's something really special.
The softness of her skin.
The smile when she greets you.
Her happiness within.
This one is a keeper
after "oh so many" tries.
But you know she must be free
when you look into her eyes.

(refrain)
Rub her soul. Rub her soul.
Best way to touch her is to give up your control.
Rub her soul. Rub her soul.
Never makes you weak,
but helps to make you whole.
Rub her soul.
No one will tell you how –
it's something that you know.

You want to give her everything her heart could desire.
She doesn't need anything –
nothing she requires.
Says she simply wants me
just the way I am
Am I good enough to keep her?
Can I be her lovin' man?

(refrain)

(mid 8)
Caress her with compliments.
Flatter her imperfections.
Norish her nurturing nature.
Embrace her with affection.
Fondle her forgiveness.
Cuddle her compassion.
Massage her mind – try to find her center of satisfaction.

(refrain)

She's free, but comes to me and wants to be my lover.
No strings attached, but will it last?
Will I lose her for another?
You want it all, want it always until the end of time.
Never mind the heart she stole.
I'm content to call her mine.

(refrain)

Rub her soul.
it's something that you know.
Rub her soul.
it's something that you know.
Rub her soul.
it's something that you know.
Rub her soul.

You Know I Want You

You know I want you,
let's make it come true, today.

If we were fruit, baby, you'd be peaches.
Fresh off the vine, so easy to reach, yeah.
Ripe and juicy – almost taboo.
You know I want you,
let's make it come true, today.

Let's make a splash, girl, cause a few waves,
When you're on fire it's hard to behave.
What I'm feelin' – somethin' so new.
You know I want you,
let's make it come true, today.

(refrain)
All I know is love's got a hold of me.
All I know is love's got a hold of me.
Captured me and throw away the key.

Don't you know it would be so complete.
To be together is all I can seek.
My heart is yours, it's all I can do.
You know I want you,
let's make it come true, today.

(mid8)
Turn around and look this way.
Give me just one chance.
You've got to hear what I say, realize it's our romance...

(refrain)
Don't be long girl, can't stay away.
You belong girl, you can't go astray.
It's been one, now it's time for two...
You know I want you,
let's make it come true, today.

(mid8)

You're the one, it's what I've been schemin'
Got to be somethin' – can't be just dreamin'
You will be true – you break all the rules...
You know I want you,
let's make it come true, today.

Text Me, Don't Sext Me!

Got your junk mail yesterday,
can't say I was impressed.
Want to hear what you gotta say but I'd rather you be dressed.
You might think it's treasure to show your pride and joy, but it don't give me pleasure to be with a little boy.

(refrain)
Text me, don't sext me.
Nothing I need to see.
Text me, don't sext me.
Freaks me, wanta flee.
Text me, don't sext me.
Jerks flirt to a "T".
Text me, don't sext me.
Where's the chivalry?

Can't undo what I just saw.
Why did you send me this?
I'm afraid to check my phone.
I'm getting really pissed.
Just want to talk, make some plans,
dance into the night.
Love is about ALL of me,
not just the parts you like.

(refrain)
(mid8)
Don't want to see it.
Won't really make it so.
Treat me like the one you love,
it's your heart I want to show.
Your pics don't impress me none,
your play's in the wrong amount.
You think it's gonna get ya some,
but it's what you SAY that counts.

(refrain)

Think I'm on my high horse?
You say that I'm a prude.
Snap the selflies, send them forth and accuse ME of being rude?
I don't blow one's own horn
but I gotta tell ya this... your cock-a doodle do do do will never get my kiss.

(refrain)
(refrain)

Blessing and a Curse

The wicked way she has with me.
I don't act responsibly.
Does the good outweigh the bad?
Best obscene I ever had.

Can't say stop when she says go.
Shows me things I shouldn't know.
Her evil plan is plain to see.
I'm a part of her puppetry.

(refrain)
She's a blessing and a curse.
A bit of heaven here on earth..
A little devil to disperse.
It couldn't be much worse.

I like my good in small amounts.
My bad only when it counts.
It's a balance then indeed,
'cause both of them is what I need.

So right, yet it's so wrong.
Is this the place where I belong?
I'm possessed by her sweet spell.
An angel raising a little hell.

(refrain)

(mid 8)
She's my demon. She's my saint.
Wrap my world around her now,
Our love has no restraint.
Makes me sad. Makes me smile.
In it deep yeah, there's no way out.

(refrain)

She's a vixen. She's a shrew.
Her voodoo will enchant you.
Fool ya with her bag of tricks.
All in ways you can't predict.

She's a vamp. She's a flirt.
How good does it really hurt?
Always get what you deserve,
it's a blessing and a curse.

(refrain)

She's a blessing and a curse.
Could it really be much worse?
She's a blessing and a curse.
Could it really be much worse

Make Someone Happy

Make someone happy.
Let them know you care today.
Make someone happy.
Love returns when you give it away.

(refrain)
It's so wrong to take so long to say.
Two as one, love's easy to convey.
If you're alone I pray
It doesn't have to stay that way, you'll see.

Make yourself happy.
Be the one who cares, today.
Make yourself happy.
Love – you never have to ever repay.

(refrain)

(mid8)
Time alone is not on loan,
it's not what love can be.
Happiness is time well spent with another soul, you'll see.

(mid8)

Make someone happy.
Share the love within you today.
Make someone happy.
Love comes back in wonderful ways...

(refrain)

If you're alone I pray
It doesn't have to stay that way, you'll see.
If you're in love today,
you'll never be alone again, you'll see.

Always Had the Power

Set aside who you think you are.
There's much more to it now, by far.
Don't matter who you want to be.
Through other eyes you will see.

(refrain)
Have I always had the power?
You've always had the power!
– it's been there all along.
Have I always had the power?
You've always had the power!
it's there to make you strong.
Have I always had the power?
You've always had the power!
– to make a right from wrong.
Have I always had the power?
You've always had the power!
– inside you all along.

Time to make the light ignite.
Flee the darkness, you'll be alright.
Pull yourself up from puttin' ya down.
Be runnin' when you hit the ground.

(refrain)

(mid8)
Don't matter what Daddy told you or the stuff Mom should have said.
It's time you gained some value,
pull the needle from the thread.
Don't matter you came from 'nothin' or had a silver spoon instead.
You can change. Rearrange. What remains is what goes inside your head.

If you're stuck, it's time to leave no matter what you might believe.
A spark inside will know the truth.
You can escape from your abuse.

(refrain)
(refrain)
